- The China Students' Union (CSU)* is completely Communist-controlled, and its activity in Hong Kong is underground.
- It is reported that in Hong Kong the International Relations Department of the CSU is responsible primarily for maintaining contacts with affiliated student bodies throughout the world, and in particular with the International Union of Students and the World Federation of Democratic Youth. It is known that the International Relations Department of the CSU produces a mimeographed propaganda sheet.
- 3. Hsin Hua News Agency press releases indicate that the headquarters of the CSU, which used to be in Shanghai, has now moved to Communist-controlled areas.
